VERY UNLUCKY.

Although Scranton Outbatted the Erie Club They Lose.

ERIE, Pa., Aug. 16.—Erie won again from Scranton today by being too fortunate in making safe hits when they were most needed. The Scrantons played a much better game today than yesterday and made five safe hits more than Erie, but were unlucky in getting their men home. A stop of a hot grounder by Nicholson, Hoover's catch of a foul fly and Patchen's batting were the features of the game. Score:

CASE OF BREAK EVEN.

Wilkes-Barre and Springfield Swap Games on the Former's Grounds.

WILKES-BARRE, Aug. 16.—The first game between Wilkes-Barre and Springfield this afternoon was a postponed one. Wilkes-Barre went to bat first at 3:30 p. m. and scored three unearned runs off Nadeau's arm, a steal, Bottens' drop fly, Betts' farce hit and Gillen's single hit. The third inning the home team opened with a single by Betts, Gillen struck out and Hess made a triple scoring Betts and scoring himself later on a passed ball. Warner reached first on a single, stole second and scored on Keenan's single. Wilkes-Barre secured two runs in the seventh off Lezotte's base on balls, Betts' single and Gillen's triple. The home team was easily retired in the eighth and ninth innings.

Springfield was retired in the first three innings without a score, but in the fourth and fifth the Down Easterns got in a terrific batting streak on Keenan, who was discouraged with Snyder's unfair umpiring. In the fourth Lynch started off with a single, Schreffl started a base on balls. Bottens hit down to Lytle, who made a

You have to sweeter in the city or to be able to flee to the shore during these hot days.

Curse the heat if you will. Far better to be calm and endeavor to counteract its effects.

You know better than any one else how it affects you. With most people it causes irritability, languor and indigestion.

UP TO CONCERT PITCH

A Business Man Gives His Experience and Tells How He Gets Along Nicely Without Going Away.

"No vacation for me this year." Mr. J. Z. Clinton, a prominent business man, seemed quite cheerful as he made this remark.

"No," he said, "hard times and business cares prevent my usual holiday, but, let me tell you I am not so disappointed as I would have been in former years."

How is that?

"Because I am enjoying sound health. I never felt better in my life. In spite of overwork and anxiety, I manage to keep strong and vigorous and instead of suffering from tired feelings, dyspepsia and nervousness as I did in years gone by, I feel like a new man. Even now I shudder as I think of the miserable symptoms I once experienced."

What were they? Well, generally a headache in the morning, a sick feeling or aching at the base of the brain; wakefulness; loss of appetite and disgust with food; loss of mental energy and interest in ordinary duties and business; restlessness and anxiety without any assignable reason; bad breath; dizziness; palpitation of the heart; sallowness of the skin; coated tongue and gradual failure of strength and ambition. I consulted doctor after doctor and with but one exception I received the same advice, namely: To take a three months' vacation. This could not do. At last I consulted another physician and the result of our conversation was that he advised me to take pre-digested food, about which I had heard a great deal. But I had had some experience with cod-liver oil and feared that this food might be something like it and equally sickening. I said, "I preferred to try something else. The doctor, however, persisted. 'This food,' he said, 'is not a drug or a medicine or a greasy mixture like cod-liver oil. It is a pure starch food, totally different from anything that has ever been introduced into the system, and it is as palatable to the weakest stomach. Take my word for it and you will find Paskola is just what you need.' So upon this recommendation I commenced taking Paskola."

And what has been the result?

"A decided victory for Paskola. Before many days had passed I felt much better. All the miserable symptoms I had formerly endured passed away, and I found that by taking Paskola I could eat well and digest well. I also gained a healthy appetite and a feeling of fresh vigor that was simply wonderful. I took Paskola with the greatest relish, for I found that, as the doctor had said, it has a very pleasant taste. Unlike all other health foods it causes no bloating sensations. Being pre-digested, it is absorbed by the system the instant it is swallowed, thus imparting nourishment immediately. The result is, I no longer suffer from indigestion, while under the nourishing influence of Paskola my weight has increased from 120 to 155 pounds in the past two months. I find it a splendid thing to take at noon, after a morning's hard work, and at night when business is ended. It seems to take away that feeling of weariness and nervous strain from which most men so much suffer. As I say, it has done so much for me and made me so strong and well, that I have no need for a vacation even if I had the time and opportunity to take one."

Such statements as these are being constantly made by people of all classes, and such unqualified praise is the best evidence that Paskola owes its wonderful popularity to merit alone.

You can obtain Paskola of any good druggist and a free pamphlet will be mailed by the Pre-digested Food Co., 30 Rensselaer street, New York.

THE TABLES TURNED.

The second game was a hard hitting contest in which Wilkes-Barre hit the hardest at opportune points of the game. Miller pitched for Springfield the first seven innings and did well, but Gruber was put in the eighth inning and four runs were made off him, two of which were earned. This change gave Wilkes-Barre the game. It was a hard fought contest, the score being tied repeatedly and was one of the most exciting games of the season. Lynch put up a great game at third, and Nadeau's second bag play was sharp and clean. Omara's hitting and backstop work was strong and Leamy made two brilliant catches in left field. Score:
